

The Quekett Microscopical Club

*Classic
microscopes*

Promoting the interests of our members worldwide

Studies of microscopic life

Identifications of rocks and minerals

*Understanding
optical systems*

Digital imaging instruments and techniques

Making special kit – optical and practical

*Historical slides and new slide making
techniques*

And many more...

Expertise is developed and exchanged in many ways

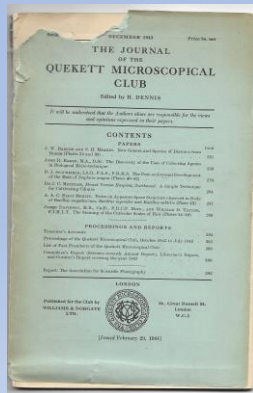

Bulletin – our newsletter!

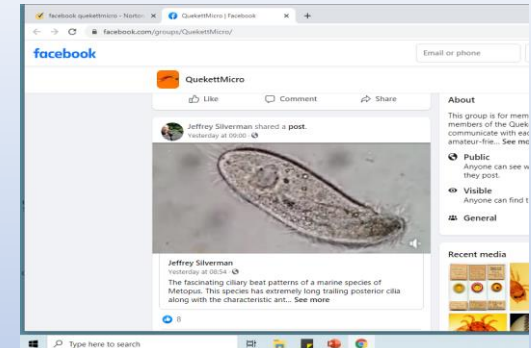

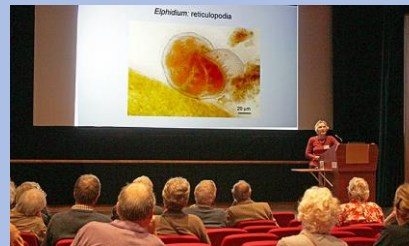

Journal – for scientific reports

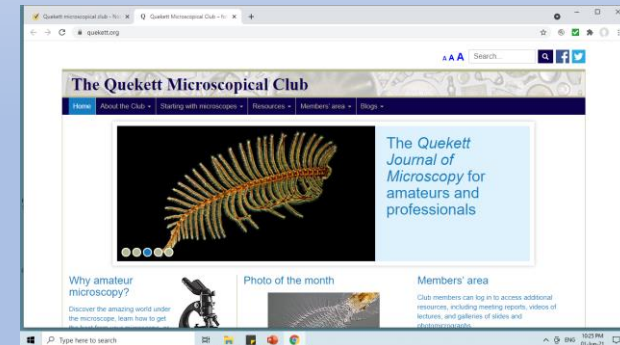

Archives – paper and digital

Excursions to nature sites, public displays, lectures, 'gossip meetings' and 'Zoom' meetings

Quekettmicro on Facebook

www.quekett.org

Live events are recorded for the website and members contribute on Facebook

The video clip displayed at this exhibition was made by Willem Cramer – one of our overseas members.

Details of membership at <https://www.quekett.org/about/membership>